Displaced Students From Sudan To Get Scholarship To Continue Studies At Al-Qalam University Katsina

Some students from Kano State who were displaced by the on-going crisis in Sudan, have been promised scholarship to continue their studies at Al-Qalam University Katsina. The scholarship worth ₦50 million naira will be accessed by the students when they fulfil necessary requirements and eventually get placement in various programmes at the University. The scholarship was initiated and supported by the immediate past House of Representatives member for Kano Municipal Constituency, Hon. Sha'aban Ibrahim Sharada. At a Presentation Ceremony on Sunday 11th June, 2023, the Bursar, Al-Qalam University, Hussaini Shuaibu received a dummy cheque of ₦50 million on behalf of the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Nasiru Musa Yauri. The cheque was presented on the promise that the funds will be released to the University when formalities for the admission of the students were concluded.
